FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APPOINTMENT OF THE NEW CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF CAAM

PUTRAJAYA – The Civil Aviation Authority of Malaysia (CAAM) is pleased to announce the appointment of Captain Norazman Mahmud as the new Chief Executive Officer (CEO), effective 1st January 2023. Following an extensive review conducted by the Authority Members of CAAM, recommendations were made to YB Loke Siew Fook, Minister of Transport on the most suitable candidate to helm the CEO position. Hence, pursuant to section 21 of Act 788, the Minister of Transport appoints Captain Norazman Mahmud as the new CEO following the departure of YBhg Datuk Captain Chester Voo.

The Minister of Transport has expressed his confidence with the recommendation made by the Authority Members and for CAAM to continue the strong momentum moving forward in 2023. CAAM will continue to build internal and external competencies and efficiencies in both the regulator and air navigation service's framework with no compromise to safety and security.

Captain Norazman Mahmud carries with him more than 30 years of experience in the aviation industry, having previously served the national carrier, Malaysia Airlines Berhad prior to joining CAAM in 2020 as the Director of Flight Operations. His illustrious career includes flying multiple fleets of Boeing and Airbus aircraft and was the first pilot in Malaysia to be rated on the A350 aircraft. Captain Norazman is currently the Deputy CEO (Regulator) of CAAM and has been instrumental in the effective transformation of CAAM in the past two years.

TAN SRI MOHD KHAIRUL ADIB BIN ABDUL RAHMAN

Chairman

Civil Aviation Authority of Malaysia
