

TUESDAY, 13 FEBRUARY 2024

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TWO BODIES FOUND AT THE WRECKAGE OF AIRCRAFT CRASHED NEAR KAPAR, SELANGOR

PUTRAJAYA - The Civil Aviation Authority of Malaysia (CAAM) confirms that two bodies of local men were found during the search and rescue operations at the wreckage of an aircraft BK 160 Gabriel crashed near Kapar, Selangor today.

The first body was found at 4:50 pm, while the second body was discovered at 7:16 pm by the search and rescue team. Both bodies were taken to the Tengku Ampuan Rahimah Hospital in Klang, Selangor for post-mortem examination and identification.

The Kuala Lumpur Aeronautical Rescue Coordination Centre (KLARCC) ended its operations at 7:25 pm.

DATO' CAPTAIN NORAZMAN BIN MAHMUD

Chief Executive Officer

Civil Aviation Authority of Malaysia